Republic of Charcoal

About Us

At Republic of Charcoal, we deliver expertly crafted charcoal — from hardwood, coconut shell, and sawdust — sourced responsibly from Indonesian communities. Clean-burning, long-lasting, and globally trusted, our charcoal combines quality, sustainability, and specialist expertise for BBQ, shisha, and industrial markets.

More than a supplier, Republic of Charcoal is a trusted export partner, providing consistent quality, customizable specifications, and reliable logistics to meet the demands of international buyers. Every product we deliver is supported by strict quality control, ensuring the highest fixed carbon levels, minimal ash, and exceptional performance. Our commitment to sustainability extends from the source to the shipment. By collaborating with local producers and adhering to eco-friendly practices, we ensure not only the integrity of our charcoal but also the empowerment of communities behind its production.
